

French

Grade Four

Communication

- Be able to recognize and name rooms and furniture in the house orally and in writing.
- Be able to understand and give basic directions orally and in writing
- Be able to talk, read and write about families and relatives
- Be able to describe weather and seasons and express preferences.
- Be able to understand and name body parts, say where it hurts,
- Be able to understand and use some vocabulary pertaining to shopping and money
- Be able to name a few electrical appliances
- Be able to recite and use in realistic situations numbers 1 - 69
- Expand their vocabulary

Connections

- Be able to tell analogue and digital time, and talk and write about daily activities
- Be able to conjugate, spell and use the verb être in context
- Continue to be orally exposed to, and where appropriate explained, the following grammatical elements:
 - gender
 - articles
 - some common verbs
 - subject pronouns
 - prepositions
 - possessive pronouns (singular owner)
- Write simple poems (cinquains, list poems)

Culture

- Learn about some French holidays and celebrations
- Learn to sing and read songs and rhymes