

Attitudes: what do we want students to feel, value and demonstrate?

In PYP schools, students should demonstrate:

Appreciation	Appreciating the wonder and beauty of the world and its people.
Commitment	Being committed to their own learning, persevering and showing self-discipline and responsibility
Confidence	Feeling confident in their ability as learners, having the courage to take risks, applying what they have learned and making appropriate decisions and choices.
Cooperation	Cooperating, collaborating and leading or following as the situation demands.
Creativity	Being creative and imaginative in their thinking and in their approach to problems and dilemmas.
Curiosity	Being curious about the nature of learning about the world, its people and cultures.
Empathy	Imagining themselves in another's situation in order to understand his or her reasoning and emotions, so as to be open-minded and reflective about the perspectives of others.
Enthusiasm	Enjoying learning and willingly putting the effort into the process.
Independence	Thinking and acting independently, making their own judgments based on reasoned argument and being able to defend their judgments.
Integrity	Being honest and demonstrating a considered sense of fairness.
Respect	Respecting themselves, others and the world around them.
Tolerance	Being sensitive about differences and diversity in the world and being responsive to the needs of others.
